PRESS RELEASE

Date: May 10, 2022
For Immediate Release

JETNET to Showcase Advanced Tools at EBACE 2022

UTICA, NY - JETNET, the world leader in aviation market intelligence, will be highlighting their Marketplace and Flight Insights tools at the European Business Aviation Convention & Exhibition (EBACE), at booth #X112, May 23 - 25, at the Palexpo in Geneva, Switzerland. The two innovative products are designed to provide the highest level of service and analytical solutions in business aviation.

“JETNET is providing critical tools and data needed in today’s European aviation market,” stated Karim Derbala, JETNET’s Lead Sales Contact: EMEA (Europe, Middle East, Africa). “We are excited to showcase our Marketplace and Flight Insights services to business aviation leaders who can utilize our superior data to exceed their customers’ and prospects’ needs.”

Marketplace

JETNET’s Marketplace captures current and historical information on business aircraft on an encyclopedic scale. Covering the worldwide fleets of jets, turboprops, pistons, helicopters, and commercial transport aircraft, the database provides key data such as owner and operator information, transaction history, flight activity, aircraft valuation data, and more.

Flight Insights

JETNET’s Flight Insights tool is the industry’s premier source for serial number-specific flight activity data tied back to company and operator names. The customizable and mobile-friendly tool tracks over 9 million take-offs and landings over the last 12 months and allows custom APIs to be available at any time.

Greg Fell, JETNET’s CEO, said, “JETNET’s Marketplace and Flight Insights tools provide users the ultimate source of intelligence on worldwide fleets and market data. They are pivotal instruments used to overcome the daily, challenging data requirements of business aviation professionals.”

EBACE attendees will be able to see live demonstrations of JETNET’s Marketplace and Flight Insights tools at booth #X112.
